Libraries & Museum Joint Health and Safety Committee (JHSC)
TERMS OF REFERENCE

PREAMBLE

McMaster University as an employer is responsible for establishing and maintaining joint health and safety committees to deal with health and safety issues concerning employees in bargaining units and all workplace parties of the University.

McMaster University promotes the approach that through joint investigations of health and safety issues and joint resolution of these issues, the workplace will be co-operatively maintained in a safe and healthy condition.

McMaster University and its employees have acknowledged that the proper functioning of the JHSC can only be carried out where the representatives of the parties are committed to their responsibilities under the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and have agreed to endeavour to promote a co-operative, positive and progressive effort concerning health and safety in the workplace.

The Library Joint Health and Safety Committee has adopted these terms of reference to guide its operations, as outlined under the McMaster University's RMM Programs 104 and 105 regarding McMaster University JHSCs and the Central JHSC, respectively.
