

WILLIAM READY DIVISION OF ARCHIVES AND RESEARCH COLLECTIONS

COPYING/REPROGRAPHICS POLICY

POLICY

Copying of items is possible in most cases for personal research purposes. On occasion, duplication cannot be permitted because of copyright restrictions, possible damage to the book or archival material, donor restrictions, or other reasons.

In most cases, permission to copy does not convey permission to publish, broadcast or exhibit the copy. For details, see Permission to Publish, Broadcast, or Exhibit.

You may order PDFs or photocopies of documents in the Reading Room or online by completing a Copy Request Form. Copies will be made by Library staff.

Reprographic Options:

Self-Serve Copying

In most cases, at the discretion of the Division's staff, you may use your personal digital camera to make copies of documents signed out to you in the Reading room. You must complete a Copy Request Form. Personal scanners are not permitted in the Reading Room.
