

How Library Stuff Works Videos: How to Search Project Muse

You need some journal articles for your essay.

Start at the library homepage, click on the Databases tab and type in Project Muse. Then click Project Muse.

From here, enter your search terms in the box provided. Limit to books or journals here (drop down menu to the right of the search box).

Let's search for "Mrs. Dalloway AND criticism."

Here are the results. To read the full-text, just click the HTML or PDF links.

To create a citation for your bibliography, click Save Citation.

And then, in the top right hand corner, click Saved Citations.

Here you can export to RefWorks, save, print or email the citation in any of these styles.